

Task: Your town or city is planning a community event to celebrate its diversity. Your friends have different ideas about what activities should be included. Write a persuasive letter to the local council expressing your opinion and preferences for the event.

In your letter, include the following aspects:

- Introduce yourself and explain why you're passionate about celebrating diversity.
- Describe your friends' suggestions for activities in the event.
- Explain which activities you support and why. Provide reasons and examples to support your choices.
- Conclude by summarizing your key points and encouraging the council to consider your suggestions for a successful community event celebrating diversity.

Please write 200 – 250 words. You have 40 minutes to complete the task.
