

Task: Your school is organizing a charity event to support the cause of your choice. Write an email to your classmates encouraging them to participate in the event. Include:

- Start by introducing the charity event and the cause it supports.
- Explain why this cause is important to you and why you believe it's worthy of their support.
- Describe the activities planned for the event.
- Encourage your classmates to get involved and explain how their participation can make a difference.
- Conclude by thanking them for their potential involvement and expressing hope for a successful event.

Please write 200 – 250 words. You have 40 minutes to complete the task.

Notes

A large empty rectangular box with a black border, intended for writing an email response.